

EXHIBIT 38

In The Matter Of:

*Fair Fight Action v.
Raffensperger*

*Margaret Tyson
December 9, 2019*

*Regency-Brentano, Inc.
13 Corporate Square
Suite 140
Atlanta, Georgia 30329
404.321.3333*

REGENCY-BRENTANO, INC.
Certified Court Reporters

Min-U-Script® with Word Index

Margaret Tyson - December 9, 2019

16

1 NAACP and then they drafted it; is that correct?

2 A Well, I, I -- I'm not certain, but that's
3 possible. I know I reviewed it and made some
4 corrections on it, so -- but that was over a year
5 ago. So I don't, I don't know for sure, but that's 6 possible.

7 Q Ms. Tyson, can you summarize what this case
8 is about in your own words as you understand it?

9 A I guess I think that Fair Fight over the 10 course of that last 2018 election identified that 11 individuals as well as any number of precincts that
12 there were issues around voting, whether it involved
13 long lines or closed polling places like mine to 14 people not being able to cast their provisional vote,
15 et cetera; that they felt like that there was voter
16 suppression, possibly.

17 Q And, Ms. Tyson, do you know what relief is 18 being sought in this investigation?

19 A I do not.

20 Q And what are you hoping to achieve as an
21 outcome regarding your own personal situation?

22 A Well, I guess, even, even if it was a
23 mistake, it is a -- it's sort of a passive way of not 24 taking voters rights seriously. So I guess I just 25 wanted to be counted. I want, I want voters to have